SCIENTISTS AND ENGINEERS FOR
SOCIAL AND POLITICAL ACTION (SESPA)

A source, who has furnished reliable information in the past, advised on January 8, 1973, that [redacted] (phonetic) [redacted] with Science for the People, and having telephone number [redacted], attended a meeting of the Washington Area Peace Action Coalition (WAPAC) held at 1346 Connecticut Avenue, N.W., Washington, D.C. (WDC) on the evening of December 21, 1972. He announced at this meeting that there would be a convention of scientists in Washington, D.C., December 26-28, 1972 (actually December 26-31, 1972), and that there would be a group of activists who wanted to take action at the convention.

Washington Area Peace Action Coalition is the Washington, D.C. affiliate of the National Peace Action Coalition (NPAC).

The National Peace Action Coalition was founded in 1970 by members of the Socialist Workers Party (SWP). Its basic objective is to unite masses of people including labor unions, GIs and the black community in the struggle to end United States intervention in Southeast Asia through orderly and peaceful tactics.
